Manufactured between 1967 and 1977. It was one of the versions of the Familia model range exported to Europe under the name Mazda 1300. It was a two door saloon car with a four cylinder engine of 1.3 L and 75 hp sent to the rear wheels with the help of a 4 speed manual gearbox. There were six body versions - two and four door saloon, two door coupe, two door coupe utility and a van version, which was called Station Wagon.

This Mazda 1300 coupe from 1975 offered on auction is one of the rarest Mazda models made in left hand drive. It is believed only 18 were manufactured, and this means it can be a very interesting car for a car collector.

This Mazda was imported to Poland in 2014 from Sweden, it was refurbished in terms of paint. The current owner wanted a white-coloured roof for this vehicle. The interior is in very good condition and the vehicle itself is fully functional. The car has new tyres and new wheels. The Mazda 1300 is not registered in Poland however has all the documents necessary to do so.

Szacowana wartość: 15 000-25 000 złotych
