All bases covered at Auctionata's Classic Cars sale 04 October 2015 | Alex Easthope

For its forthcoming Classic Cars sale, Auctionata has compiled a typically eclectic collection of affordable classics, so much so that it was extremely difficult to choose a theme for our selection. As such, we've simply picked our favourites...

On 10 October 2015, Auctionata will offer 40 affordable classics in Berlin, 28 of which are estimated to fetch under 50,000 euros. Leading the sale is an opulent 1950 Alfa Romeo 6C 2500 SS (200,000-260,000 euros), its Pininfarina coachwork resplendent in gold. A little out of your budget? Not to worry - in a similar vein but more affordable is the Mercedes 190 SL (45,000-58,500 euros) and the wonderfully regal Jaguar XK150, estimated at 40,000-52,000.

You can find the full catalogue for Auctionata's Classic Cars sale taking place in Berlin on 10 October 2015, listed in the Classic Driver Market. These are our favourites...
