The Porsche 911 was born for road-rallying

26 October 2015 | Alex Easthope

Olivier Saint-Jours and Ben Marigot recently took part in the Rallye Ol'Drive in France, aboard a Viper Green 1973 Porsche 911 2.8 RSR. Fortunately for us, photographer Vincent Perraud was on hand to capture all the action...

Mean in green

These fantastic photos were shot by Vincent Perraud, and show the green Porsche in its element on the French road-rally. Saint-Jours and Marigot finished an impressive fifth overall – we couldn't think of a better car in which to tackle the gravel special stages. Just what is it about green Porsche 911s and golden autumnal foliage that work so well together?
