
The Eames Office comes to London

12 November 2015 | Charis Whitcombe

We've long been fascinated by the American designers, Charles and Ray Eames - and not just for their furniture, photography, film and architecture. It's the thought of the hub of creative activity that defined the fabled Eames Office...

Another day at the office

It was at the Eames Office that the husband and wife team – and those that worked alongside them – generated an incredible energy that embraced a fun-filled ‘trial and error’ approach to design. Now, until 14 February 2016, the Barbican Art Gallery in London is hosting an exhibition titled ‘The World of Charles and Ray Eames’.
