Lead

The Classic Driver Market can be a distracting place. The other day, while casually scrolling through, we were stopped in our tracks by this fabulous Ferrari 512BB, resplendent in Rosso Rubino Metallizzato – a seldom-seen colour that, when contrasted with the car's black base, works brilliantly...

Ravishing in red

Currently for sale with Classic Driver dealer Hexagon Classics, this Rosso Rubino Metallizzato right-hand-drive Ferrari 512BB possesses all the right credentials – matching numbers, extremely low mileage (25k miles), the all-important Classiche certification, and a recent concours-standard restoration, carried out by both Hexagon itself and the official Ferrari Classiche service centre. More importantly, that colour is utterly fetching, and complements Fioravanti's rakish design so well. We're completely smitten.
