Description

French title

Chassis # 1752810

- The most sought after version of the 203
- In nice condition, very genuine
- A pleasant and easy to use car
- No reserve

As states the original certificate of conformity accompanied by a letter from Peugeot and the warranty card (all included in the car's file) this Peugeot was delivered new on June 14, 1955 to Ms. Nathalie Fresneau, residing in the Loire -Atlantique region (the owner's plate is still fixed in the cockpit). This document authenticates that the car as a cabriolet and its release date, despite an administrative error on the current registration paper which displays that the car's first registration was on 1st February 1955. Black with a red interior, with many Robri accessories (wheel caps, etc) and featuring long-range headlamps, this car was restored in the past and now has a nice patina. The red leather upholstery is very well done, with matching door panels and carpets, and blends perfectly with the dashboard's sheet metal of the same hue. Only the hood and tonneau cover are in used state and would need some care. Mechanically, the engine and the clutch bearing have been refurbished in 2012 by the owner's mechanic, so the car works perfectly. The car is shod with Michelin X tires and displays 37,922 km on the odometer, it is ready to hit the road and to provide the owner the pleasure of a relaxed drive, aboard an authentic automobile in condition, without concerns of mechanical issues.
