

CLASSIC DRIVER

Jerry Seinfeld's Porsches could fetch \$10m at auction

Lead

A significant collection of classic cars belonging to American comedian Jerry Seinfeld will be sold by Gooding & Co at its Amelia Island sale in March, including these three very special Porsches...

The three cars in question are a 1955 Porsche 550 Spyder (est. 5m-6m US dollars), an 'Aurantium Green' 1958 Porsche 356 A 1500 GS/GT Carrera Speedster (2m-2.5m dollars), and the first 1974 Porsche 911 Carrera 3.0 IROC RSR built (1.2m-1.5m dollars). Seinfeld is renowned for being a classic car – and in particular Porsche – enthusiast, thanks to his weekly 'Comedians in Cars Getting Coffee' online show, in which he takes comedians and other humorous celebrities for coffee in one of his many cars. The episode featuring President Obama in Seinfeld's 1963 Chevrolet Corvette Stingray is one of our favourites. The three Porsches will be shown at Gooding's Scottsdale sale as a preview for the further portion of Seinfeld's collection, which will be sold at Amelia Island on 11 March 2016.

Photo: Gooding & Co

Gallery

Source URL: <https://www.classicdriver.com/en/article/cars/jerry-seinfelds-porsches-could-fetch-10m-auction>
© Classic Driver. All rights reserved.