10 Instagram accounts to follow during #74MM

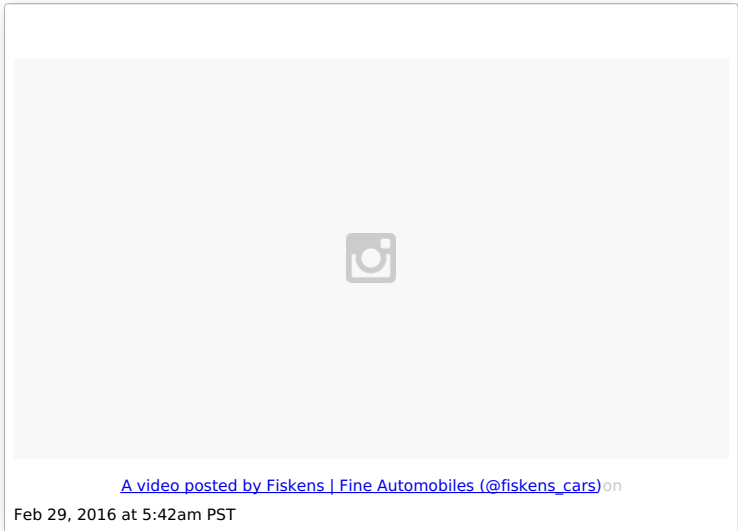

Lead
Between these 10 Instagram accounts – including photographers, racing drivers and Classic Driver dealers – you’ll not miss any of the action from this weekend’s 74th Goodwood Members’ Meeting, regardless of whether you’re going to be there...

Goodwood Road & Racing

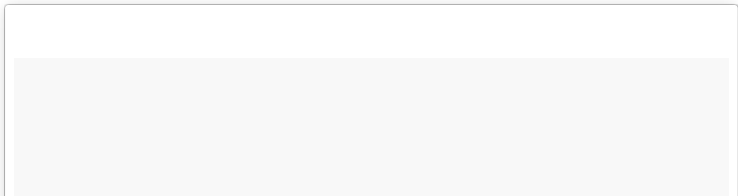

Naturally, a good place to start is Goodwood Road & Racing’s official Instagram account. It’ll be updated with exclusive images and videos throughout the weekend – giving you a second pair of eyes if you are there, and a healthy dose of envy if you’re not...

Fiskens

If you want to experience #74MM from a driver’s perspective, you have several choices. The official Instagram account of Classic Driver dealer Fiskens will give you some behind-the-scenes insight as Gregor Fisken prepares to race a Ferrari 246 Dino single-seater and an Iso A3C.

DK Engineering's James Cottingham is a true flag-carrier for the old 'Race on Sunday, sell on Monday' mantra. This year, he'll be driving a Shelby Daytona Coupé and one of the 29 cars in the Ford GT40-only Alan Mann Trophy.

Jochen Mass

As well as racing a Mercedes 300 SL, a W196 Grand Prix car and a Ford Capri, Jochen Mass will also be on House Captain duty during #74MM, representing the Darnley contingent. Let's hope he also finds the time to update his Instagram profile...

The W196 that'll be driven by Jochen Mass is one of two that official timekeeper IWC will be taking to #74MM in partnership with Mercedes Classic. What more incentive do you need to follow the official IWC account? You also find some rather desirable timepieces in your timeline, too.

Max Girardo

Previous years have seen RM Sotheby's auctioneer Max Girardo pilot a Ferrari 250 TdF in a characteristically flamboyant fashion. This year, his machine is a little more humble (he'll drive a Mini Cooper S), but we're sure that won't stop him putting on a crowd-pleasing driving display...

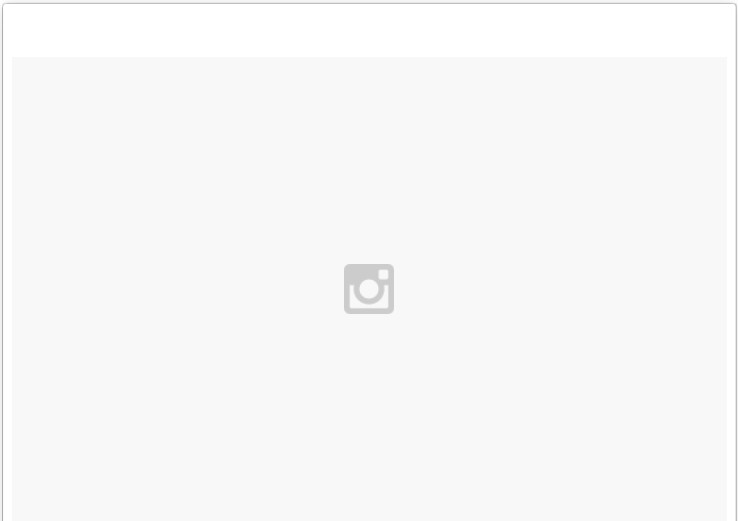

Rémi Dargegen

Our official event photographer Rémi Dargegen can capture those all-important details like few others – and there’s no place more deserving of a photo-artist’s eye for the unusual than Goodwood.

Nick Swift

If you’ve ever watched Nick Swift throw his Mini around Goodwood in the most animated fashion imaginable, you’ve probably wondered what on earth goes on in his head. By following his Instagram account, you need wonder no more...

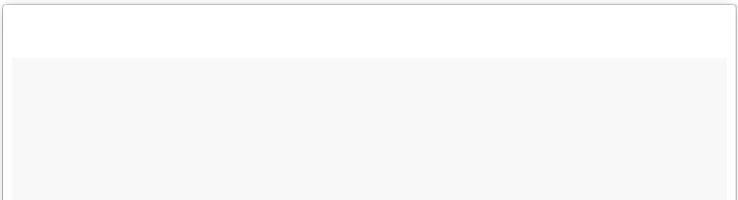

Amy Shore

Another of our favourite photographers, Amy Shore isn’t one to be afraid of getting a little dirt under her fingernails. Somehow, she’s also quite adept at talking her way into restricted areas, meaning her Instagram account might well be populated with scenes other photographers could only hope to capture.
