USD 100 - 350

Description

Description

For many years the floors of all Ferrari dealerships in Italy were tiled with these beautiful yellow ceramic tiles. At the beginning of the last decade there were a number of changes in the design requirements for those dealerships and these tiles were no longer included in that design plan. Never used and as new from the Ceramichi Piemme tile factory, these were supposed to be destroyed but an unknown amount made it into circulation. Made in Maranello, for Maranello.
