Two's company with NCT Motorcycles' custom Moto Guzzi sidecar

Lead

For the most part, motorcycling is an independent experience during which you're truly at one with both your thoughts and your environment. But what if you wanted to share the experience? This custom Moto Guzzi sidecar by Kärnten-based NCT Motorcycles could be just the ticket...

Three's a crowd

When the folks at National Custom Tech (NCT) got their hands on this 1975 Moto Guzzi 850 T3, it was already equipped with its sidecar thanks to a previous custom motorcycle builder. But there was still much work to be done. It's been comprehensively rebuilt, including sexy velocity stacks in place of the airbox, new suspension and brakes, and a bold red and white colour scheme. Happy riding...
