

CLASSIC DRIVER

Autodromo's Group B Evoluzione is an homologation special for your wrist

22 June 2016 | Alex Easthope

Inspired by the relentless rate of development in the golden era of rallying, Autodromo has revealed a limited edition 'Evoluzione' version of its popular Group B chronograph...

Chasing tenths

Just like those potent Group B homologation specials, just 200 Autodromo Group B Evoluzioni will be built, each of which will come with a numbered aluminium carry case and four nylon straps, in colour combinations inspired by the most famous Group B liveries. Unlike the snarling rally cars, however, there are no panel gaps and shoddy craftsmanship to see here – and gone is the stainless steel case of the old watch, replaced with an unpolished aerospace-grade aluminium unit, reducing the overall weight of the watch by seven grams. It's a proper 1980s-styled timepiece, that looks right at home at the wheel of the Lancia Delta S4 in the mesmeric video above.

Photos and video: Autodromo

<https://www.classicdriver.com/en/article/watches/autodromos-group-b-evoluzione-homologation-special-your-wrist>

© Classic Driver. All rights reserved.