
Let Paul Smith shine his creative light on your living room

15 July 2016 | Joe Breeze

As leading lights in their respective fields of British design, Paul Smith and Anglepoise have once again collaborated to create the third special-edition Type 75 lamp...

Contemporary design, century-old colour palette

While the previous two special editions have featured subtle floral hues, the Paul Smith Type 75 Edition Three is inspired by the vibrant visual vocabulary of Dutch artistic movement De Stijl, and is typical of Smith's signature colour-by-component style. It will go on sale in October ahead of next year's De Stijl centenary.
