Brass-era bikes up for grabs at the RM Sotheby's Hershey sale

04 October 2016 | Jan Baedeker

Early motorcycles from the brass era have recently surged back into favour with the stylish biking community. We found these historical two-wheeled machines in the latest RM Sotheby's catalogue, all of which should demand attention at any 'Gentlemen's Ride'...

On 7 October at the RM Sotheby's Hershey sale, 11 interesting motorcycles will go under the hammer, from pre-War classics to 1960s icons from the likes of AJS, BSA and Yamaha. In addition to the bikes, the 126-lot Hershey sale comprises predominantly American classics spanning many decades.
