Inspire the next generation with these BMW-themed skateboards

15 December 2016 | James Bannister

Worried that your children haven't caught the automotive 'bug' just yet? Why not nudge them in the right direction with these BMW-inspired skateboards?

All aboard!

Featuring legendary BMWs ranging from the E9 3.0 CSL to the E36 M3 Lightweight (and even some Alpinas thrown in for good measure), these skateboards from Garagewelt - whose Instagram account is well worth a follow - are a great way of instilling some automotive passion in the younger members of your family. Alternatively, you could indulge your inner child and cruise into work aboard one. Failing that, any of the designs would look great mounted on your office wall...
