Description

We would like to offer this Saab 96 (V4). It is the last of the "aerodynamic" Saab automobiles and it holds the land speed record for stock body production cars with 750 cc engines. This car #96552066 is in a good condition with a lovely patina and had just three owners since new. Over the past 25 years it's been permanently garaged and the price includes also the owner's manual and the spare parts from the second Saab 96.
