Description

- Treated to an extensive marque specialist restoration
- Suicide doors and full length retractable canvas roof for 'Transformable' motoring
- UK registered with 'baby Ferrari' number plate and MOT'd until October 2017

Calling all Fiat Nuova aficionados - '328 UYO' is a stunningly-presented, low-mileage, matching-numbers, extensively-restored example of one of the most collectable versions - it has the rare combination of D specification, 'suicide' doors and full length (Trasformabile) sunroof that folds right back to the engine cover for optimum wind-in-the-hair motoring. Built on June 1st 1962 it originally resided in Umbria, where it was then treated to a thorough 8,000 Euro refurbishment in 2002. Its second owner was a resident of Bruges, which is where the 500 lived until imported to the UK by a Kent-based collector in 2015. Only recently it benefited from another respray in its original colour of Verde Chiaro and was equipped with many new parts including: exhaust system, battery, sunroof, and set of tyres. Still displaying just 37,213 kilometres, this little gem comes complete with period engine cover rack, wicker hamper and MOT into October 2017.
