
New City Concours to bring Le Mans legends to central London

27 March 2017 | James Bannister

As one of the world's biggest classic and collector car hubs, London has long been overdue a fresh take on the traditional concours competition. Twenty-seventeen will see the first City Concours take place, and the cars and location are sure to delight and amaze...

Quality in the capital

Held on 8-9 June, the City Concours will take place on the Royal Artillery Headquarters lawn, near Barbican. If the first two confirmed cars are any indication of the calibre of the event, Londoners are in for a treat. One of the most original Jaguar D-types in existence, the legendary Le Mans veteran, Ecurie Ecosse racer 'RSF 303', and an achingly pretty Touring Superleggera Disco Volante Spyder, one of just seven built, will be exhibited among the 80-car selection. With a broad assortment of cars on display, in categories ranging from F1 Hall of Fame to Alternative Power, as well as supercars and sports cars for sale, the City Concours is certainly not one to miss.
