Description

"The XJ range has been the Jaguar flagship car since 1970. The version launched in 1997 was codenamed X308 and built on nearly 30 years of Jaguar heritage. The model was badged XJ8 to reflect the new line up of V8 engines that powered the range. The exterior styling was similar to the model it replaced but the interiors saw a significant improvement in refinement over its predecessor. This XJ8 is powered by the 3.2 version of the V8 engine and presents well in the classic colour combination of dark green with beige leather interior. The vendor states that during his four year ownership the car has performed well. This Coventry big cat has all the original owner's manuals and a service book showing nine stamps. This Jaguar is offered at no reserve with a V5C registration certificate and an MoT test certificate valid until October 2018."
