We would bid for these collectables from Schuler in Zurich

Lead

From 18-22 June, the auction house Schuler will open a fascinating treasure chest of collectables, artworks, design classics, vintage accessories, and antiques. These are the objects of our desire...

The auctioneers at Schuler clearly have a broad understanding of design, which we're only too happy to follow. What else connects the Omega Speedmaster, an automobile trunk by Louis Vuitton, a coffee table by Ray and Charles Eames, and a shelf by USM Haller but successful and functional aesthetics? Another tip: the auction catalogue, which is listed in the Classic Driver Market, also includes a well-stocked selection of jewellery, handbags, and ladies' watches. Even if Christmas is still a while away, there's always a good reason to give the lady in your life a gift such as a Cartier watch or a Kelly bag...
