A 1971 Porsche 911 2.2 S Coupé in absolute top quality condition. Supplied in Italy from new on the 1st February 1971, thus this is an original European model. Only 1,430 of this desirable 2.2 S Coupé`s were ever produced. Thanks to its 180PS strong, 5-speed gearbox, it is a true feast to drive this 911. Two years ago the car was fully restored and mechanically overhauled in Holland. The bodywork is as straight as an arrow and as good as new. All the body panels fit snugly and the chrome work is as good as new. The rust-free underbody is in immaculate condition. A well-known Dutch Porsche specialist took the engine and transmission apart and put it back together as if it had just run in! The restoration has been extensively documented with over € 73,000 worth of invoices present. The original finish of 'Silbermetallic 80/80' complimented with a black/ Pepita vinyl trim. It has factory-fitted surround tinted windows. This 911 has a so-called a 'Geburtsurkunde and Auslieferungsbestätigung' Most certainly this car represents the best you can expect of a top quality restoration in a particularly fetching colour scheme!
