Fantastic Aston Martin Lagonda. Delivered new to Mr. Karras on the 2nd of December 1987 in Newport Beach, California. The Lagonda was world's first production car with a digital dashboard and only 645 examples are made of them. This is a series 2 and equipped with a 5.3 V8 with four Weber carburetors and more than 290 bhp. This car comes from fourth owner and has driven only 59.833 miles. The body is beautiful, has perfect panel fittings and very good paintwork. The undercarriage is completely free of rust and very original. Performed in red with a beautiful 'Natural Tan' leather interior. The interior is completely original and has a gorgeous patina. This very futuristic designed car is equipped with a few factory options such as: cruise-control, electric windows, airco and rear sunroof. It is also equipped with her original BBS wheels. The car still has her original so 'Matching Numbers' engine. Of course it comes with a build sheet. Top example in rare original condition with a very low mileage!
