Description

For sale in our upcoming auction on September 16th at the Montreux Palace, exhibition on the Montreux Palace garden, from September 13 to 16. Our Bentley is an elegant Mk. VI from 1955. This vehicle underwent a very high quality restoration placing it at a level of presentation which we could qualify as ??concourse? .? Our Bentley is presented in a very elegant grey two-colored livery and Bordeaux inside. The alcantara and the paint accuse no defect, just like the woodwork as well as all the elements of the dashboard.

Presented in an exceptional condition, this Bentley shows a beautiful mechanical condition and esthetics. The engine, completely verified, is in an irreproachable condition and its start is close to perfection. The manual gearbox spends speeds with delicacy, just like travels of the vehicle, always so comfortable and soft, trademark of vehicles coming from the English firm.

All the chromium is in excellent condition, neither pricked, nor shocked and the vehicle could be new, as in its factory exit, now more than 60 years ago.

The evolution of the road is made in a certain comfort, the suspensions return very pleasant and comfortable travel. The linearity of the engine, as well as the couple released by the latter, bring the characteristic sensations of an English limousine. Proposed in a livery of the most desirable, associated with a functioning of the most flexible, this Bentley offers services of comfort and luxury that has today almost disappeared, and will delight an enthusiast by finding himself at the wheel of one of the most luxurious vehicles of this period.
