At this weekend's Concours of Elegance at Hampton Court Palace, the Aston Martin DB11 Classic Driver Edition will be displayed among a selection 'British Legends' curated by the Bridge of Weir Leather Company...

In pride of place

Over a century ago the Scottish Bridge of Weir Leather Company began providing its luxury hides to the automotive industry and has since worked with the likes of Jaguar, Aston Martin, Ford, and McLaren. To celebrate its rich heritage, the company will present a selection of 'British Legends' at the Concours of Elegance this weekend. And guess what? Our Aston Martin DB11 Classic Driver Edition will be joining them in the regal gardens of Hampton Court Palace. The connection is appropriate – the Eifel Green leather in the DB11 is one of the car's most special features and truly must be seen to be appreciated.
