Description

French registration title

- Original service books
- Car in good condition
- Rare Giallo Ferrari color

Following on from the 512 BB, the Testarossa was an even more highly-developed rendering of the line of mid-engined berlinettas started by Ferrari with the 365 GT4 BB. Beneath the bodywork designed by Pininfarina, this model continued with the flat 12-cylinder engine mounted above the gearbox, as already seen in previous versions. A number of improvements, such as the cylinder heads with 4 valves per cylinder, increased the power to 390 bhp. Accelerating from 0 to 100 km in 5.3 secs and with a top speed of 290 kph, the Testarossa boasted a level of performance only matched by a tiny handful of exotic supercars. The model's exceptional qualities ensured that demand for it was high and more than 7 000 were sold. This being one of the most impressive berlinettas ever produced by Maranello, a Testarossa in such outstanding condition and with such a reasonable estimated price represents an opportunity not to be missed.

The Ferrari Testarossa we propose has been registered for the first time in Turin the 14th February 1991 with the dealership Symbol Car. Our Testarossa has been followed through the years by a Ferrari specialist, first in Italy until 2015, and then in France at DmotorSport, Ferrari specialist based near Dijon. Its previous Italian owner, member of the Automotoclub Storico Italiano obtained in 2011 the certificate of conformity approved by the F.I.V.A. The current French owner also received in 2015 a proof of conformity from Maranello, and in 2016 he asked a report to the consultancy firm Alliance Expertises which determinates the value of the car at 125000€. Showing a little bit more than 50000Km on the odometer, we indeed noticed this Testarossa was particularly well preserved, which is noteworthy considering it's a Ferrari from 1991 in original conditions. Its rare and original Giallo Ferrari color of the nicest interest and the Connolly leather are in good conditions. In addition to the original service books, the car still has the spare key and tool box. Iconic model and legendary V12 engine, this Testarossa distinguish itself with this widespread color, and represents a reasonable purchase.
