Description

The V-12 Vanquish debuted in the 2002 James Bond 007 film Die Another Day. Between 2004-2007 only 1086 Vanquish S' were built.

Increased horsepower, overall performance and slight styling revisions separated the S from the standard Vanquish.

This US specification example comes in a rare and tasteful colour combination: Tungsten Silver over Iron Ore. Displaying less than 5,000 verified miles from new, this car has had its problematic electrohydraulic gearbox replaced with a brand new DB9 unit for many miles of trouble-free motoring.
