- Light restoration completed in 2011
- History file detailing some of the works carried out

This vehicle was first sold new in Queensland, Australia in 1975 and features automatic transmission. The previous owner undertook a light restoration in 2011 which included a top end engine rebuild and a back to bare metal respray in its original green.

The vehicle comes with a history file detailing some works carried out by the previous owners and today presents an excellent opportunity to purchase a future classic

Following the huge success of the 240Z, Datsun released its successor the 260Z in 1974. The aggressive and sleek exterior styling was very similar to its predecessor with the interior receiving an updated dash console which featured integrated A/C in to climate control panel, however the major difference was the overall engine capacity was increased to 2.6L. This meant that power was also increased to 165bhp and top speed was now 205km/h.

Also introduced with the new model, was a GT style variant featuring a 2+2 seating layout suitable for small adults and children.
