Description

This classic car is for auction at online auction platform Catawiki. Please click here to place a bid and to find more information about this. Not a standard Fiat 500, but a philatelic work of art. A truly unique car. The body of this car has been restored by a repairman and philately lover. He wanted to make this car really unique so he decided to cover it with stamps. With the help of other stamp-lovers he stuck about 30.000 stamps in his free, evening time. He also drew the post horn, used by older postmen; he made the writing '500 PT' and highlighted the roof drip caps and the under door sections using stamps of the same kind; he maniacally took care of the stamps on the engine air intakes and also signed the completed work. The car has been exhibited at 'Milanofili 2014', a national philately event and in many other philatelic shows. The car drives and it has been revised, and takes part to all vintage cars gatherings. The car is 49 years old so it is officially considered a classic car.
