Description

Aston Martin Vanquish -02, Titan Grey with Saddle Tan Leather,

Equipped with the rare Sports Dynamic Pack (SPD) which principle changes over the standard car were to the chassis/suspension and brakes. The front upright and wheel assembly were made stronger and stiffer with shorter springs (reducing the ride height by 5mm) and revised dampers. Also the steering was made more highly geared to make it 20% quicker than previously. The front brake discs were increased to 378mm in diameter (up from 355), together with six pot calliper to replace the four pot items. The rear disc diameter remained unchanged at 330mm, although 2mm thicker than on the standard car.

Best way to identify the Sport Dynamic variant from the standard car are the lightweight 9 slim spoke wheels (and new brake discs with an elliptical groove pattern.
