Description

The car offered here is a rare Porsche 912 Targa Soft Window. A Soft Window version, apart from the low production number, has become even rarer because several copies of this version have been converted over time to a glass rear window. This 912 is in a good driving condition. Both the interior and the exterior look good overall. He has many of the original options. The Porsche Certificate of Authenticity is present. The car was completely restored 22 years ago. 4 months ago he still had major maintenance. There is a 1-2-3 ignition on it. There is a Car-pass on which a logical mileage can be seen from the 1st owner in Belgium in 2000. The color is aqua blue and this was then an original Porsche color. It is a Porsche originally delivered in Germany.
