Description

Chassis no. ZAR115000*06002920

Engine no. AR01563*000349* Always Italian registered, still with the license plates issued in January 1993 when it changed province of registration. Original logbook. Still equipped with its original engine.

Color scheme of "Rosso Alfa" (Alfa red) over "Black Sky" interiors is the most attractive for an open Alfa Romeo.

Four-cylinder engine, 1.6 carburetors, providing the Alfa Romeo sound at affordable running costs.

Just over 50,000 km from new. Another "Aerodinamico" spider with this level of originality would be hard to find.

Extremely well preserved car that still wears its first paint on almost all the bodywork.

Excellent overall conditions; the mechanics, always well maintained, are in perfect working order.

It comes from an important private collection and its history is known.

Six owners in total, including the famous prosecutor Henry John Woodcock; it has been in its current ownership since 2017.

It combines some of the most classic and delightful lines with a great driving experience. It is also extremely simple and cost effective to run. A perfect car to enter the classic car world in style.
