Description

Chassis no. 05138

Engine no. 135 CS Registered in Rome in December 1972, this car has always been in Italy.

Still with its original plates and logbook.

Only two owners in total, the first from 1972 to 2017.

Covered little more than 40,000 km in its entire lifetime.

Totally and perfectly preserved car which has always been well cared for, with its ordinary maintenance always carried out at the scheduled times. Mechanically in perfect working order.

Color scheme "Bianco Polo" (white) over black interiors and Daytona type seats. Only 247 specimens were produced in white.

Designed by Aldo Brovarone for Pininfarina, this is one of the most beautiful Ferraris built at Carrozzeria Scaglietti in Modena.

With its 2.4-liter, 6-cylinder, central-rear mounted engine giving out 195 HP, it is a sheer pleasure to drive.

It makes a fantastic sound, thanks to its three twin choke 40 DCF/14 Weber carburetors positioned just few centimeters from the cockpit.

This is an incredible example of the last evolution of the Dino model, type 607. It spent 45 years of its life in a single ownership. Every component is perfectly preserved. Car ready to be driven and to take part in the top meetings. A truly exciting car, extremely rare to find in such original condition.
