This Belgian collector car auction is very much to our liking

Lead

Noble Auctions from Belgium is holding an online auction until 25 June, which comprises 78 coveted collector cars that are bound to appeal to connoisseurs and fledgling collectors alike...

Online auctions are currently a dime a dozen, but this catalogue is certainly one you should check out. The team from Noble Auctions has managed to curate a sale that's as versatile as it is attractive. For example, we could certainly make room in the garage for the blue Ferrari 308 GTS with its creamy interior, a VW Bulli from the 1970s, an Alfa Romeo 2600 Zagato, or a Landy tow truck that would be ideal for when the Maserati inevitably throws a strop. You can find our 10 favourites below or, alternatively, browse the entire catalogue in the Classic Driver Market.
