From a particularly handsome 1992 Aston Martin Virage Volante resplendent in metallic blue (est. £58,000–64,000) and a brutish 1974 Jensen Interceptor Convertible formerly owned by the majority shareholder of Jensen Motors (£46,000–52,000) to a fun-loving Meyers Manx-bodied VW beach buggy, if you'd like to feel the warm breeze in your hair for the remainder of the summer (and definitely beyond!), then look no further than Historics Auctioneers' Brooklands Motor Museum Sale, which is poised to take place on 13 July. You can find our 10 summer favourites from the catalogue listed below or, alternatively, browse the entire catalogue in the Classic Driver Market.
