Description

---

This Mercedes-Benz 220 S Heckflosse from 1964 is in a neat and driving condition. The car has a remarkably silent running 6-cylinder under the hood with a capacity of 120 hp and an automatic that is switched on the steering wheel. The car drives well, despite being 55 years old. There is documentation available, also from Sweden because he comes from there. The seats are still sturdy and the upholstery is original and cool, only a few small spots on top of the backrest of the rear seat are broken. The cover of the doors on the inside is also very beautiful. The underside is perfectly tectylated, as the Swedes are used to. All meters, etc. on the dashboard work properly. The paintwork and chrome of the car look cool. The car has a fresh MOT of 2 years, where no point of interest was found. To get a good impression of the car we advise you to come to one of the viewing days.
