Description

This Alfa Romeo Alfetta 1.8 Lusso is in a neat and rolling condition. The car was originally delivered new in the Netherlands and has been from the current owner's uncle until 2011. In the winter it was never driven, the car was stored moisture-free, and the car is therefore completely hard. The car has been restored for 5 years since 2011 and since then only 750 km has been driven. Both the interior and exterior look good overall. Unfortunately, the restorer has reset the mileage of 80,000 to 0 without consultation. The brake system must be bled. There are booklets with the car. The MOT is valid until 05-05-2021 and no road tax has to be paid. To get a good impression of the car we advise you to come to one of the viewing days.
