Description

This is an original Dutch BMW M3 E92, manual, with the desirable V8 engine. Maintenance costs have never been saved, all invoices are present and the maintenance book is stamped. The last 2 years the following major maintenance has been done : Bearing shells replaced by specialist, IMS sensor replaced, inlet sensor replaced. The tires, brake pads (including sensors) and fluids have also been renewed. It is a unique car with the right options: black leather interior, carbon roof and rear spoiler. The rims have some damage and must be blasted again. A NAP report is present. Experts expect that this model will increase in value in the coming years. To get a good impression of the car we advise you to come to one of the viewing days.
