- Elegant Touring shape

- 8,000 € of recent mechanical work

- High and reliable performance mechanics, 5-speed gearbox

The model we present to you features a bodywork in good general condition whose lines are enhanced by a beautifully crafted red paint. The interior is clean, the upholstery is beautiful as well as the carpets which are in good condition, the top and the top cover as well. Its original dashboard is equipped with its complete Veglia instrumentation and original steering wheel. Shortly after its purchase in June 2017, its current owner had the meters rebuilt whose funds had deteriorated over time. In use, this convertible reveals a balanced behaviour on all levels and it is important to specify that the gearbox has been recently rebuilt as well as the electrical harness for a total amount of 8 000 €. The rims repainted a year earlier and fitted on Michelin tyres in 165 - 400 X are also worth noting.

Slimmer, more elegant and above all much more pleasant to drive than the 2600 that will succeed it, the Alfa Romeo 2000 Spider Touring is certainly one of the most desirable Italian cabriolets and underside today.
