Description

This is a Mercedes Benz CLS 55 AMG built in 2005. A car with a demonstrably low mileage of 81,896 kilometers. The Mercedes-Benz CLS 55 AMG was built from 2004 to 2006 and was the most sporty version of the CLS-Class, the four-door coupé from Mercedes-Benz. Comfort and sportiness are combined in this model. This car is equipped with options including a full black leather interior, automatic climate control, sliding / tilting roof, wooden inlays in the dashboard, air suspension, automatic gearbox and electric seat adjustment with memory function. AMG, the in-house tuner from Mercedes, took over the 5.4-liter V8 compressor engine, delivering 476hp and 700Nm of power. In a comparison by the leading German car magazine Auto, Motor und Sport, the Mercedes CLS 55 AMG was chosen in a comparative test over the BMW M6. To get a good impression of the car we advise you to come to one of the viewing days.
