All your Christmas wishes could come true at this auction in Zurich

Lead

At the beginning of the advent season, the auction house Schuler in Zurich traditionally opens its chambers of wonder. From 9-13 December, watches, designer furniture, artworks, wines and collectables will be on the metaphorical shelves – and you'll surely find a Christmas present for yourself...

If you're anything like us, you dream of being able to buy all your Christmas presents in one go and savour the rest of the advent season with a single malt and a great book in front of the fireplace. With Schuler's upcoming auction in Zurich, this dream could become a reality for you. From 9-13 December, almost 4,000 lots will go under the hammer. Included in the vast catalogue are antiques and treasures, watches and jewellery, vintage luggage, design icons, collectables and even vintage wines and spirits.

These are our favourite lots from Schuler in Zurich
