Description

Beautiful Porsche 911 2.4 T with sliding roof from the year 1973. Coming from New Jersey, USA. This beautiful specimen was completely restored and technically overhauled a few years ago. Of course fully documented with a photo reportage and countless bills. Thanks to this restoration the body is in a very good condition. The sheet metal is very tight and has beautiful fits. The paintwork is also beautiful! Technically perfectly maintained over the years and therefore also in good working and driving condition. Made in white with a very nice black / pepita interior. Chic combination! Equipped with a number of special options ex-factory including, sports seats, sliding roof, stabilizer bars, comfort package and electric windows. The car is Porsche certified and has its original and therefore "Matching Numbers" engine. To get a good impression of the car we advise you to come to one of the viewing days.
