Description

Lancia Delta HF Integrale 2.0 16v AWD. This copy was delivered new in Saronno, Italy on March 16, 1990. The name Delta HF will certainly not be unknown to you after the many rally successes / victories. This is one of the most ultimate street versions of the Delta, namely the HF Integrale 2.0 16v AWD. Derived from the legendary Group A car with which Lancia won the constructors' title six times in succession and three times with the drivers during the Rally World Championship. The 200 horsepower turbo engine combined with the four-wheel drive and five-speed transmission ensure phenomenal driving characteristics and a unique experience. This Delta has only driven 50,513 kilometers, is in a very original condition and comes from the first owner. The body is very beautiful, has sleek sheet metal and beautiful paintwork. The paintwork is largely original, "Grigio Metallizzato" color scheme with a luxurious half-fabric, half-Alcantara interior. The interior is original and is in super good and well-kept condition. Ex-works with a sliding roof, electric windows and metallic paint. Documented with original board folder, service booklet and instruction booklets. In short, a legendary 90's "rally" car for the street. To get a good impression of the car we advise you to come to one of the viewing days.
