Description

---

Maserati Quattroporte 4200 series 1 built in 1964. This is the most popular and special series 1 Quattroporte 4200. Nice and especially solid basis for restoration. The body is rust-free, very original and the fittings of the sheet metal are as they should be. Technically completely overhauled and running very well. Almost complete, executed in its original and special color "Oro Longchamps" in combination with an original red leather interior. A good basis for restoration is almost impossible to find, a very interesting restoration project. To get a good impression of the car we advise you to come to one of the viewing days.
