Description

Maserati 2.0 Biturbo in particularly beautiful and original condition. Delivered new in Italy on June 4, 1986 and coming from second owner with only 31,826 kilometers! Even the first Italian license plate still present! The Maserati Biturbo was the first production car with a bi-turbo engine. At the time, very revolutionary. This specimen has never been restored and is in a particularly good and very original condition. Performed in its original color in combination with a cognac leather interior. The interior is completely original, in beautiful condition and has the right patina. The body is beautiful and has good fits. The paintwork is original and has a beautiful shine. The bottom is cool, rust-free and very original. This is the 2.0 V6 Biturbo version with carburetors, at that time only available in Italy. Also equipped with air conditioning ex-factory. Nice specimen with exceptionally low mileage! To get a good impression of the car we advise you to come to one of the viewing days.
