

At this Swiss auction, your dream car is just a click away

22 March 2020

Jan Baedeker

The upcoming auction of the Oldtimer Galerie Toffen, occurring on 28 March, will take place without visitors due to the protective measures against the spread of the coronavirus in Switzerland. Fortunately, you can still bid online, in writing or over the phone...

Even though we're not enjoying the spring sun in a convertible right now, our need for classic and modern collector cars is still strong. As luck would have it, the Oldtimer Galerie Toffen auction on 28 March provides us with an opportunity to satisfy this need with numerous exciting and unusual cars going under the virtual hammer. As always, you will find an excellently curated selection of great classics and design icons in the catalogue, as well as veritable racing equipment, modern collector cars and affordable cult vehicles. Please find below 10 lots we would virtually raise our hands for. You can also find the entire catalogue in the Classic Driver Market.
