This white 1982 Ferrari 400i has been owned by the same person since 1996. The last owner really looked after his Ferrari. The bodywork condition is good. The body panel alignments are all equal and the paintwork is neat, as well as being rust-free. The 400i had a major service in 2018. During this service a new MSD-ignition and many parts of the fuel system were replaced. Invoices relating to this service and repair by Ferrari Seattle are present. The iconic V12 engine runs beautifully and is coupled to a 3-speed automatic. The beige leather interior trim is in good condition and enhanced by new specialist made carpets the owner had fitted where needed. The leather trim is the original first leather! This 400i has Matching Numbers. Driving experience is greatly enhanced by its air-conditioning, good audio system, divine seats and 3-spoke Nardi steering wheel. In short this fantastic Grand Tourer Ferrari 400i is ready to traverse the continent in all comfort, bring you "La dolce vita"! A very authentic, well-maintained and very neat 400i.
