

Watch our chat with Philip Kadoorie on Classic Driver Live

Classic Driver

Tonight's guest on Classic Driver Live is Philip Kadoorie, the son of The Hon. Sir Michael Kadoorie who's following in his father's footsteps, not only as an astute businessman but also as a diehard classic car enthusiast...

When Philip Kadoorie is not overseeing any number of his family business interests in Hong Kong, you're most likely to find him either at the controls of his helicopter or behind the wheel of a special car, be it a Le Mans-winning Ferrari 250 Testa Rossa on a countryside blast around the Cotswolds or a Lamborghini Huracán racing car on any number of circuits around the world. Those who follow the charming 28-year-old Hong Kongese on Instagram understand the brevity of his automotive interests - he's contested the Tour Auto in a Group IV Lancia Stratos, raced a Porsche 904 Carrera GTS in the RAC TT Celebration race at the Goodwood Revival, tackled the gruelling East African Safari Classic Rally in his Porsche 911 and owns what is perhaps the finest McLaren Senna we've yet clapped eyes on. We're thrilled that Philip will be joining our very own J. Philip Rathgen for tonight's instalment of Classic Driver Live - pour yourself an ice-cold cocktail and tune in from 5pm CET/4pm BST on our Instagram channel.
