Description

- registered on 1st January, 1955, three previous owners, in the same collection for 9 years.
- station wagon version of the renewed unibody Fiat 1100, based on the type B layout, the richest and most equipped, much appreciated by craftsmen and traders, six-seater passenger compartment.
- restored bodywork, burgundy color with contrasting roof. The interiors are original and well preserved, period radio. Chromes and metal parts in excellent condition.
- mechanically complete, it has been regularly used until 2012. Has not a valid MOT.
- rare example of station wagon with high-end set-up, being work vehicles they were usually purchased with basic finishing. It looks very good, with a preserved interior and a pleasant patina. Complete with 1967 logbook, "foglio complementare" and vintage plates.
