Description

One of only 113 UK-supplied, C16-spec cars. White with red the best colour combination. 7,633 warranted miles from new. Only two owners from new. Serviced and supplied by Porsche Centre Leicester from new. At the end of production of the 996 Porsche first came up with the idea of building a track and performance-focused 911 and to call it GT3, or in extreme guise GT3 RS. This was the car that started that trend which continues to the current day based predominantly on their 911 Carrera Cup car from their own one-make series. For some - the fact that this car was the originator of the road car derivative - makes it the holy grail of the whole GTS RS generation that followed. Certainly with a UK C16 production run of just 113 units in right-hand drive - it is today one of the rarest. So to find a car with just one owner prior to our private vendor and also a car that has never been on the track is an extremely rare thing. But here we are with this very special GT3 RS acquired from Porsche Centre Leicester just 3 years ago with a perfect OPC main dealer service history. Today it has covered just 7,500 miles from new and has been 'rev checked' with no discrepancies found. (In fact, it has only been to the red line once!) It is priced realistically today, for such a special car, and still has both the fire extinguisher and race harnesses in their respective boxes, as it was when delivered new. It has hardly been used for the last three years but still serviced to manufacturer's schedule and correctly stored. An amazing opportunity for the real enthusiast. 2004 Porsche 911 GT3 RS (996) <https://youtu.be/bY0EWpIcy2g>
