Description

"The Pininfarina-designed Peugeot 306 was introduced in 1993 as a three and five-door hatchback and as a replacement for the very successful 205 model. In May 1994, the 306 Cabriolet was added to the range, initially fitted with a 123bhp, two litre engine. The response from the motoring press was very positive and the car went on to be a very popular and stylish convertible.

Rare, is the opportunity to buy a twenty-four-year-old car that is, to all intents and purposes, new. This red 1995 Peugeot 306 Cabriolet with grey interior is one such find, kept unregistered as part of a private collection and showing an astonishing 70 miles on the odometer. Offered in beautiful deep red metallic coachwork with contrasting trim and black electric hood, this example is presented in 'excellent/as new' condition throughout. Supplied with the original book pack, this is a car which surely has significant potential as a concours entrant or as part of a private or public collection.

Guide Price £10,000 - £15,000The health and safety of both our customers and team remains the utmost priority, we are therefore operating to Government guidelines throughout viewing and auction day."
