Description

This 356 B T5 Coupe was delivered in 1961 by the famous American Brumos Porsche Corp. This Porsche dealer is best known for its many racing succes in America. Later the car was traded to Porsche importer Max Hoffman.

This 356 came to the Netherlands a few years ago and has been completely restored by the current owner, who runs a restoration company. He wanted to restore in the best way he could and this coupe shows all his knowledge and craftsmanship. He also fitted a 356 C engine with 95 bhp. The wonderful classic color Fjordgreen makes the car looking fantastic and even more is the combination with the dark red leather: stunning. Anyone who ever has made a ride sitting on the standard seats, knows that these are not the best there is. Fortunately, the restorer has chosen to assemble the wonderful Speedster seats. These are not only excellent but also look sporty.

This 356 has been neatly run in for you, is ready for delivery and has comes with an valuation report and Cardex.
